THE KNOG SAUSAGE LOCKS
PARTY FRANK / KABANA / KRANSKY
CABLE LOCK

FEEL GOOD. 4 -12 SEXY COLOURS. KEEP GANGSTAS AT BAY.
YOUR ESCORTS ABOUT TOWN.

The Knog Sausage Locks, colourful, fun, soft to touch but impossible to bite into fibre-core cable locks: Party Frank, Kabana and Kransky.

The Knog Sausage Locks are named after tasty sausages because the silicone wraps smoothly over the steel cable like a tight skin. Ranging in cable diameter from 12mm (Party Frank), 17mm (Kabana) and 22mm (Kransky) these locks combine a braided loose bound fibre core steel cable with a patented seamless over-mould using medical grade UV stable silicone. Although cable locks are generally recommended for situations requiring medium security solutions, Knog uses a fibre core cable, making these Sausage Locks much more secure in the event of a bolt cutter party pooper.

All three Sausage Locks include 3 colour coded over-moulded keys, 1000 unique key combinations, have no leverage points, won't scratch or mark your bike and combine good looks with security:

The Party Frank is the most flexible of the pack and with its 8mm stainless steel locking shackle and weighing only 250 grams, at 620mm it will wrap around your wrist, handlebar or frame. Available in 12 delectable colours, it's a little secure beauty and a great fashion accessory.

The Kabana is longer and fatter and with its 11mm stainless steel locking shackle and weighing 500 grams, at 740mm it's spicier. Available in 6 delicious colours, it's not only more secure but looks hot too.

The Kransky is the strongest and fattest Sausage Lock and with its 22mm diameter cable and weighing 1 kg, at 880mm it'll wrap around the heftiest pole. Available in 4 lush colours, it's not only the most secure of the pack, but bound to satisfy.

With the Knog Sausage Locks – Party Frank, Kabana and Kransky – you get good looking, very affordable and secure cable locks, designed up and ready for the bike to beach or barbeque.

The Knog Sausage Locks come in a range of fantastic colours including: hot pink, lime, aqua and charcoal. Expect them to retail around USD$24 to USD$49.
